Nicholas Cardenas

The Franklin Institute's DISCOVERY CAMP
Teacher Recommendation Form

1. How does this student demostrate a desire to learn? Nicholas is always eager to learn. He is willing to ask questions if he does not understand or would like to know more. He often takes the initiative to research about topics that interest him especia scien
2. How does this student interact with peers and adults ? ~~Nicole~~ Nicholas has a collection of friends that share his love of science. To adults he is always polite and cooperative.
3. What are some of this student's distinguishing attributes? Nicholas is able to combine critical thinking techniques and creativity. He offers a perspective on topics in our curriculum that benefit all students.
4. Would you recommend this student for The Franklin Institute Discovery (science education) Camp? Why? Why not?
Nicholas would be an excellent child for your camp. He loves science - can't seem to get enough of it, and it would probably make his entire summer
5. Please summarize your overall evaluation of this student.
Nicholas is bright, sensitive, creative and polite. He is thirsty for knowledge and would give back to you as much as he would get from you.

name printed Amy Ruddock title 2nd Grade Teacher

signature Amy Ruddock date 3/23/00

Please seal this form and give back to the child. Application deadline is a firm April 14, 2000.